GROUSE SEASON TO OPEN SEPT. FIRST

The grouse season in eastern Oregon opens next Monday morning, September 1, according to law and District Warden Averill declares that persons attempting to open the season Saturday or even Sunday will surely come to grief.

Having learned from a number of sources that several people from Pendleton, Athena, Walla Walla and other places were planning to "spring the season" one or two days, the game warden has employed a large force of deputies to patrol the grouse sections from now until Sunday night. Some of the local members of the Umatilla County Fish & Game association have volunteered their services in the interest of fair play while a number of mountaineers have been pressed into the service and every man going into the hills with a gun before Monday morning will be watched from the time he arrives on the hunting ground until he takes his departure.

In addition to the extra large force of deputies which he has employed, Averill is offering a cash reward of $12.50 for evidence leading to the conviction of anyone killing a bird before the season opens.

According to reports which have been received by local sportsmen from every section of the Blue mountains the birds are more plentiful this season than for many years. They have therefore appealed to the game warden to make an extra effort to see that all are given a fair chance.

permission to build a temporary dance platform on the Darveau lot, corner of Webb and Cottonwood for use during the Round-up.

N. P. Wants Conference.

A communication from George T. Reid, vice president of the Northern Pacific, to Agent Walter Adams asking that a conference between the council and company officials be arranged for some time immediately after the Round-up, was read. The company wishes to settle all differences with the city which have arisen over the orders of the city that vitrified brick be laid between the N. P. tracks on improved streets. The council decided to give the company officials an audience.

The city marshal was again instructed to notify all contractors that danger signals must be used at night, wherever they leave materials in the

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Accused of Forgery.

Albert Payne is being held in the county jail on a charge of forging the name of Jack McPhail. He will be arraigned before Judge Parkes this afternoon.

Governor's Detective Leaves.

Tom Kay, Governor West's detective, and the men who have been assisting him, left Pendleton on the local this morning for points west. They will return soon to be witnesses in the cases which they filed here.

Pool Hall Men Fined.

Upon pleading guilty to the charges of allowing minors to play pool in their parlors, John Butler and W. J. Connors, local pool hall proprietors, were yesterday fined $25 each and costs.

Lighting Up Tracks.

M. J. James, a Northern Pacific electrician of Tacoma, came into Pendleton this morning for the purpose of installing electric lights along the temporary tracks laid for the purpose of parking special trains here for the Round-up.

New Oregonian Correspondent.

Sam H. Forshaw, the florist, has been appointed as Pendleton correspondent to the Portland Oregonian. Mr. Forshaw is an old newspaper man and will encounter no difficulty in filling the demands of correspondent.

Building Permits.

W. J. Clarke today took out a permit to build a $4500 bungalow on his property, corner of Main and Jackson street, and C. H. Rosenberg took out one to build a porch and cut new doors and windows in his residence, 615 Lewis street.

Teachers' Contracts Filed.

Miss Anice L. Barnes has filed a contract with Superintendent Young to teach in district 49 for nine months at $90 a month, and Miss Lotie Brant has filed a contract to teach in district 55 for eight months at $60.

Suing to Collect Money.

The Central Door and Lumber Co. has commenced suit against H. H. Harvey for $250 and interest alleged to be due on a promissory note. Attorney fees of $50 additional are also asked. James A. Fee is plaintiff's attorney.

Fail to Appear; Bail Forfeited.

When the case against James and Emma Wade, accused of conducting a bawdy house, was called for trial this morning, the defendants failed to appear. After calling three times at the front door of the court house the defendants still failing to appear their bail was declared forfeited.

Build More Roundup Seats.

Carpenters are busy at work at Round-up Park building additional bleacher seats for the accommodation of the anticipated crowds at the show this year. A new section has been constructed to connect with the north east turn and another will be built over the paddocks at the northwest turn. The arena fence has been put up and additional barn space is also being provided.

Greek Fined $10.

Albert Praso, the Greek arrested in the recent raid of rooming houses and against whom a charge of vagrancy was lodged, escaped with a ten dollar fine this morning. The testimony showed that he had been employed regularly by the county on road work and was an expert powder worker. He boarded and roomed with Mrs. Johnson at 613 Garden street where he was arrested.

Grandstand Seats Nearly Gone.

With the seat sale under way but four days, the great majority of Round-up grandstand seats are already gone. Practically all that remains for Saturday is the top row. Friday's sale is not quite so complete while there are many good seats yet left for Thursday. The management will later reserve some of the bleacher seats for the benefit of those late comers who do not desire to take their chances with the mob.

May Pave Boulevard.

Property owners along the boulevard between Main street and Brown hall may pave that roadway in the near future. Mayor Matlock announced to the council last evening that such a plan was being seriously considered and that the Warren Construction Co. had been asked to have its engineer make an estimate of the cost. The boulevard being private property, no action by the council will be necessary.

All the Way From Detroit.

An automobile party of three arrived in Pendleton this afternoon from Detroit, Michigan, and after dining here, left enroute to Seattle. However, they will return to Pendleton in time to take in the Round-up. The party is traveling in a Reo and had made 2657 miles when the machine pulled into this city. They had been three weeks on the trip Tuesday and had stopped two days in different cities.

To Establish Nursery.

A day nursery is to be conducted during the Round-up for the purpose of caring for babies whose parents wish to see the afternoon exhibitions. The nursery will be in the Christian church and will be conducted by the Misses Blanche and Clyde Whittemore. Babies may be left with cards attached containing instructions for feeding and they will be fed accordingly. Every precaution will be taken to care for the children of any and all ages, and amusements will be provided for them.

Records for Enunciator.

Such lulls as there may be at the Round-up will be filled by band music and also by selections on the phonograph attachment to the electric enunciator. The Portland company has sent up a list of the records available and the directors will make their selection from it. The equipment for the enunciator system is being shipped from Chicago and will arrive here soon.

Taking Out Old Grating.

Though the council has not yet passed upon the recommendation of City Physician Temple that all sidewalk gratings be condemned as unsanitary Mayor W. F. Matlock today took the lead in the matter by securing workmen to replace the old grating in front of the Mark Moorhouse office with a solid iron door.

Coming to Round-Up.

How the spirit of the Round-up is invading the big cities is exemplified in a letter received this morning by Judge Thos. Fitz Gerald from Messrs. Spelder & Hurlburt, big hardware dealers of Seattle. Neither of the gentlemen have ever attended the local show yet they have grown so enthusiastic over it from accounts that they announce their intention of being here for all three days.

Burglary Case Up For Trial.

A circuit court jury is today listening to the evidence in the case of Frank Miller, Henry Geers and John Messer, charged with burglary from a dwelling house. It is alleged that they broke into the L. G. Frazier residence on north Main street last April and stole clothing and silverware. The two former were arrested in Walla Walla and claimed that they received the articles from hoboes. Messer, who is a negro, was picked up here and his evidence is counted upon to assist the prosecution. G. W. Counts is representing Miller and Geers while the colored man is looking after his own interests. The state rested at 1:45 this afternoon and Geers took the stand in his own defense.

CALIFORNIA TOO DEEP TO RECOVER BODIES

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 28.—The steamship State of California, wrecked in Gambier bay, lying in 37 fathoms of water, will not give up its dead. Three submarine divers sent to the scene of the wreck were unable to descend only to the pinnacle of the rock on which the vessel struck. In the depth of water in which the California lies it is impossible for any diver to work. No further effort will therefore be made to recover the 20 bodies supposed to be in the cabins of the wrecked steamer.

Captain Thomas H. Cann, Jr., First Officer William Abernathy and three of the crew who are standing by the wreck have arrived here to testify before the marine inspectors.

MAN, 2 WOMEN, BABE, SAVED BY GOOD NERVES

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 28.—Presence of mind of all concerned was all that prevented another drowning in the Willamette river here when the canoe in which W. M. Hamilton and wife and a woman guest from Tacoma and her baby were occupants overturned. The party was proceeding across the stream to the Polk county side, where Hamilton has a summer camp, when the craft was seized in a swift current just as it passed around a gravel bar and was upset. Seizing the baby Hamilton swam ashore, and the two women clung to the craft until it floated to a log boom, where a rescuing party in a rowboat picked it up. Hamilton is manager of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company. He was formerly a resident of Portland.

Attorney Is Found.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 28.—H. W. Evans, an attorney, who disappeared from home yesterday while mentally unbalanced through worry, was found wandering aimlessly on the streets. It is believed he will soon recover. His disappearance caused grave concern.

Stock Ranches

I now have listed practically all of the best stock ranches that are offered for sale in the county. Having formerly been engaged in the stock business for 12 years in Umatilla county, and knowing the country and values as I do, I am in a position to show you the best buys to be found. I also have a few wheat, alfalfa and diversified farms with prices right. Vacant lots, residence and suburban property.

See me before you buy and talk it over.

HUMORISTS COME TO AID OF THE NATION

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 28.—(By Douglas Malloch, reporting the American Humorists' convention for the United Press.)—Things are in a bad way in the country and therefore the humorists have congregated here to dispose of some big questions. With Thaw in Canada and frost in Mexico strong men are needed. The administration has blundered. If Lind had been sent to Canada and Thaw to Mexico, everybody would be satisfied. The solution of the problem, however, as viewed by the convention is woman suffrage. If women are given the vote, they can carry the money reform proposals by giving us an elastic currency. There should be a tariff on all the necessities and a low tariff on luxuries because Americans want luxuries worst of all.

Formerly the buggy was admitted to the best circles but nowadays the people are mortgaging their houses to buy automobiles. The republicans were declared to have put the con in conservation, while the democrats were said to be busy licking other democrats who lick other parties. The country needs less politics and more poetry was the consensus of opinion.

Nearly everybody in a small town pretends to despise an amateur show—yet nearly everybody goes. Honesty may be the best policy, but there are a lot of men from Missouri.
